

ASSEN ZOEKT ...

Assen Zoekt intercultural evangelist

We love searching.
And maybe we are looking for you, right now!
You as in evangelist being part of a dynamic team,
working together on this mission:
Seeking peace for the city of Assen and its people!

Assen Zoekt is a beautiful group of people on a journey. A journey of discovering who God is, what we can become as a community and how we can be of value for our neighbors. Trying to come alongside in the quest of people around us, we became a diverse group of people from very different background. Together looking for what God shows us and how to bring that into practice. We do so within small groups coming together in our own house, but also with a bigger group on Sunday in the 'Open Hof' in the neighborhood of Vredeveld (Assen).

Intercultural work – 8 hours

We share our lives with people from different cultures and background. If you come from a different cultural background than the Dutch one, we love to hear from you. Intercultural work means building up relationships with people that are looking for asylum and people that got a positive from the IND and are welcomed in the Netherlands. Within this work you will be spotting talents and make it contribute within and outside the community, you will run courses and will start homegroups. Also you will be finding and building leaders within the intercultural group. All these things will help bringing cultures together and celebrating the diversity God created in this world.

Part of a team

You will be part of a team of four staff workers.
Every team member will use their talents within their own responsible area. At the same time, we as staff members will contribute towards the work within the community and outside together.
Together, that is the spirit with the team of volunteers as well.
We would love to hear you preaching during our Sunday meetings a couple times a year.
As you can imagine, a passion for Jesus and His mission is a must. Besides that, theological knowledge and a suitable proof of education is important.
To be part of the community, it will be helpful and good to make Assen your hometown.

Would you like to be part of this movement?

Would you like to contribute towards peace for Assen and its people of every nation and tongue?
For this 8-hours-job, you will be paid a salary that is agreed upon amongst church workers.
Without a doubt we can promise you that it is exciting to be part of what God is doing in and outside Assen Zoekt...

We kept this announcement very short.
